The play

HELLO!!

Oh! Look there's a little boy who plays with a chair, the chair is the ship and he is the captain! Hello captain! Where are you sailing to?.. He doesn't answer. He is too shy to talk, too shy to make friends.

One day he met a girl. This little girl will change his life forever and here it is the story about the boy and the girl!.. About real friendship and communication!

The company

Andrei Krupa and Nicoletta Christoforou are the founders and the creators of the theatre company and of "Little Worry People art & drama studio".

They began their Journey in the beautiful world of theatre at the St.-Petersburg State Academy of Arts.

After their graduation (ma the art of acting) and theater education, they worked for the Cyprus Theater Organization and as well as with other significant theatrical groups.

Andrei is an actor, physical performer, director and teacher at a theatre studio.

Nicoletta is an actress and a theatre teacher.

Together they created this unique performance with puppets, mime, live music on stage and interactivity with the children.
